Patent Interference No. 105,606 (JL)
(Technology Center 2800)

RE-DECLARATION - Bd.R. 203(c)¹

It has come to the attention of the administrative patent judge that Harari's involved application and each of the ancestral cases to which Harari had been accorded benefit in the initial declaration of interference was respectively filed on different dates and states in the specification as filed that it incorporates by reference the disclosure of an application "filed on the same day as the present application." Even assuming for the moment that general incorporations by reference as such are proper, which they are not, the target of incorporation is facially different from case to case and thus each subsequent case appears to add new matter relative to all preceding cases in the chain. It is
